

José Madrid Salsa

25 Flavors of All Natural,
National Awards Winning Salsa
Hand Crafted in Zanesville, OH

José Madrid was born in the town of Clovis in the Territory of New Mexico before it became a state. He was a rugged man and had to be since he lived in Lincoln County, the home of Billy the Kid and Sheriff Pat Garret. He could shoot cans off a fence post with his Colt .45 while riding a horse at full gallop!

José married a beautiful Spanish lady and they had one son and six daughters. Unfortunately, when the youngest child was only four years of age he lost his wife. It was up to José to teach his daughters how to cook.

José lived off the land growing his own vegetables and peppers. He used these vegetables to create his own salsa, an art which was passed down to his children.

Estelle, José's second youngest, met and fell in love with Al Zakany who was in Clovis training with the Army Air Corps for WWII. They married, and Al brought Estelle back to his hometown of Zanesville, OH.

The Zakany's were entrepreneurs. Al's father owned a successful grocery store, so it was only natural that two of his sons opened a restaurant. The restaurant became a success because it featured the "New Mexican" style of food based on recipes handed down from José to Estelle then to her sons.

In 1989 one son, Mike, saw potential in the salsa served at the restaurant. He experimented with his grandfather's recipe until he reached perfection. Mike "The Salsa King" Zakany created a hit. His salsas have won blue ribbons in nationwide salsa competitions in the US and Canada.

We believe José Madrid Salsa is the best tasting salsa you will ever try, and we have the awards to back it up!
